

Active wound therapy: eliminating barriers to healing

Johnson & Johnson Wound Management Symposium

Friday, 16th September 2005, 17:30-19:00

Silcher Saal
Liederhalle, Cultural and Congress Center, Stuttgart

- 17:30 Biochemical wound bed preparation - eliminating barriers to healing.
K. Harding, Cardiff, UK
- 17:45 Removing first barrier: The role of SILVERCEL* hydroalginate dressing with Silver on management of wounds.
U. Ziegler, Stuttgart, Germany
- 18:00 The clinical evaluation of SILVERCEL* - hydroalginate dressing with silver, in the management of chronic wounds with clinical sign of local infection.
L. Teot, Montpellier, France
- 18:10 Silver safety as an antimicrobial and as a healing agent
K. Harding, Cardiff, UK
- 18:15 Removing all the 6 barriers - PRISMA Balancing Matrix 6 MoAs.
B. Cullen, Gargrave, UK
- 18:30 PRISMA Clinical experience.
D. Mayer, Zurich, Switzerland
- 18:40 PRISMA Clinical experience.
R. Lobmann, Leipzig, Germany
- 18:50 Conclusions and Discussions
- 19:00 Close

Joint Meeting between ETRS/EWMA and DGFW
in co-operation with CAW and AGW

The future of healing. A tradition of trust